In front of the sofa is a round, dark wood coffee table with a white spherical base. To the left, a tall, thin floor lamp with a white shade stands next to a white side table. The background wall is white with a large, abstract, gold-colored sculpture. A built-in shelving unit with glass doors and open shelves holds various decorative items, including books and vases. A large, white, leafy chandelier hangs from the ceiling. To the right, a large window is covered with dark, vertical blinds. A modern, curved floor lamp is visible in the foreground on the right.
